

It is the people's rights to hear the truth (not lies) about what is happening. It is sickening to know the truth behind the news that we people receive. Lets stop the secrecy and the twisting of the facts and give it to us straight.

We the people have ways of finding out the truth. It is getting passed along. The day of reckoning is coming. The people of the United States of America will be ready.